PASTOR CLENARD HOWARD CHILDRESS, JR, FOUNDER AND NORTH-EASTERN DIRECTOR OF BLACKGENOCIDE.ORG

PASTOR CLENARD CHILDRESS

CALL OF GOD'S PEOPLE

Dr. Childress served at New Calvary Baptist Church for many years, received his degree in Christian Education, and was ordained in 1988. Since then, he has served as Senior Pastor of New Calvary, President of the Life Education and Resource Network (L.E.A.R.N.) in Northeast Region and was the chief organizer of the "Say So" March to the U.S. Supreme Court. He has received The Honorary Degree of Doctorate of Divinity. Childress is married to Regina Childress and has four children: Clenard, Thomas, Tonya, and Tia.

After many other ventures in ministry, Pastor Childress began broadcasting "The Urban Prophet," taking the pro-life, pro-family message into urban areas. In September of 2002, he birthed the pro-life website Blackgenocide.org, designed to reach the Afro-American Community with the truth about abortion. Since this time, he has been a member of the Board of the Center for Bio Ethical Reform. Rev. Childress authored his first book No Shepherd's Cry in 2006.

MARK DIGIACOMA, CEO & SENIOR ADVISOR FOR CROSSROADS LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT, LLC.

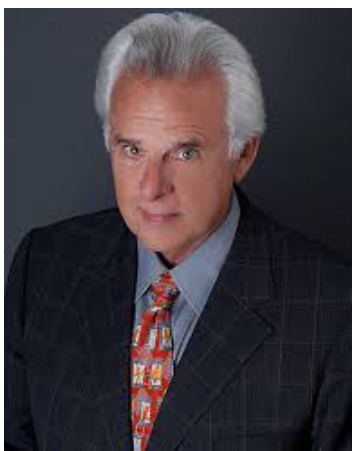

MARK DIGIACOMA

STRATEGIC PLANNING FOR LIFE MINISTRY

Mark DiGiacoma created Crossroads Leadership Development LLC, where he consults on developing leaders at all levels. His vision is to ensure that every employee is led by competent, passionate leaders.

Mark and his family make their home in the mid-West but make it a goal to get to the ocean whenever possible. Mark's viewpoint starts with the desire to serve God by serving mankind. His approach to developing leaders can be distilled down to three interdependent beliefs:

1. Real leaders seek to serve as well as to inspire.
2. Leadership is a calling – not a box on an organizational chart – and is to be cultivated at every organizational level.
3. Transformational learning experiences are both relevant & experiential.

WESLEY J. SMITH, AUTHOR & SENIOR FELLOW AT THE DISCOVERY INSTITUTE'S CENTER ON HUMAN EXCEPTIONALISM

WES SMITH

HUMAN EXCEPTIONALISM

Wesley J. Smith left the full-time practice of law in 1985 to pursue a career in writing and public advocacy. He is the author or coauthor of twelve books. His Human Exceptionalism blog, hosted by National Review Online, is one of the premiere blogs dealing with human life and dignity.

His latest book is Culture of Death: The Age of "Do Harm" Medicine (2016), a warning about the dangers of the modern bioethics movement, was named one of the Ten Outstanding Books of the Year and Best Health Book of the Year for 2001.

Smith has published hundreds of articles and opinion columns on issues such as the importance of being human (human exceptionalism), assisted suicide, bioethics, eugenics, transhumanism, legal ethics, medical ethics, and public affairs. His writing has appeared nationally and internationally, including in Newsweek, New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, USA Today, Forbes, The Weekly Standard, and National Review. He has also appeared on thousands of television and radio talk/interview programs for public advocacy purposes.

STEPHANIE GRAY, AUTHOR AND SPEAKER

STEPHANIE GRAY

ABORTION: FROM CONTROVERSY TO CIVILITY

Stephanie holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from UBC in Vancouver, and a Certification, with Distinction, in Health Care Ethics, from the NCBC in Philadelphia. She is an international presenter from Canada who has given over 800 presentations since beginning her full-time pro-life career in 2002, at the age of 21. Much of Stephanie's media experience was generated when she spent 12 years as executive director and co-founder of the Canadian Centre for Bio-Ethical Reform.

In 2017, Stephanie was a presenter for the series "Talks at Google," speaking on abortion at Google headquarters in Mountain View, California; within six weeks of the recording being loaded to Google's YouTube channel, it generated 100,000 views. Stephanie is author of Love Unleashes Life: Abortion and the Art of Communicating Truth and will be presenting on how we can winsomely engage the culture on abortion, persuading people through kind and compelling conversations.

REV. RICK BERGH, THANATOLOGIST, AUTHOR, COUNSELOR, SPEAKER

REV. RICK BERGH

GRIEF MINISTRY

Rick was ordained into the Anglican Network in Canada as a priest in the fall of 2017. He is a Certified Thanatologist (CT), Narrative Therapist (NT), speaker, workshop leader, and best-selling author. His first 31 years of experience were as an ordained Lutheran Minister and as a counselor with extensive work and ministry in palliative care and bereavement.

Rick's wisdom on this topic is much more than just theoretical – his practical knowledge comes out of his own personal experience. Rick and his four children used these principles following the death of Rick's first wife from ovarian cancer at 47 years old. Rick serves a parish in Langford, BC and provides numerous workshops across Canada and the US. His mission is to equip and train leaders and laity in their ministry of grief, loss, and end of life. Rick lives in Victoria, BC with his wife, Erica.

REV. CATHIE YOUNG, AUTHOR AND PRIEST

REV. CATHIE YOUNG

THEOLOGY OF SUFFERING

The Rev. Cathie P. Young is a pastor, teacher and author. She received her Masters of Divinity from Fuller Seminary in Pasadena, California in 2007 and was ordained later that year as a Clergywoman in the Anglican Church. She currently serves as the Interim Rector at St. James Anglican Church in Costa Mesa, California.

Rev. Cathie is married to Philip, the love of her life, is grandmother to five grandchildren, and is a spiritual mother to children around the world. In 2012, Rev. Cathie suffered advanced, invasive breast cancer and endured a double mastectomy, six months of chemotherapy, and six weeks of radiation. In 2013, she went through numerous surgical procedures of chest reconstruction. During this time of suffering, Rev. Cathie blogged her journey. As difficult as the journey was, Rev. Cathie's and Philip's joy remained, and they found the presence of their Kind Savior in a real and astounding way during the "cancer storm." Now she has decided to share that love, hope, and comfort with others. Rev. Cathie speaks to groups about faith, prayer, cancer, and finding Jesus in the midst of great crisis.

SHARON FOX,
AUTHOR AND GRIEF
FACILITATOR, BRAVE PENNY

SHARON FOX

MOBILIZING THE CHURCH FOR ADOPTION

Sharon has lead the Grief Recovery Ministry at Christ Church Plano, TX for over twenty years. Certified as a Grief Facilitator by the American Academy of Bereavement, her experience with all types of loss is based on God's Model of grieving the death of Jesus. She is the founder of the non-profit Brave Penny, providing grief recovery books and materials to those in crisis, as well as offering training on grief recovery for clergy, lay ministers, and adoption agency staff.

Sharon has published several books about life-affirmation. A Precious Loss is for families who have experienced miscarriages, SIDS, or infant death, and Reframing Adoption, focuses on the unique grief of birthmothers who have chosen adoption for their child. She has been a speaker at national adoption conferences across the U.S.

AUTUMN LINDSEY,
STUDENTS FOR LIFE

AUTUMN LINDSEY

THE PRO-LIFE GENERATION: LIFE-AFFIRMING YOUTH MINISTRY

Autumn Lindsey came to the attention of the pro-life community in early 2017 when her bold response to a post by Teen Vogue via social media went viral. She has since traveled nationally to speak with Students for Life and has become acclaimed for her eloquent public-speaking and firm stance that "all life is precious and should be celebrated and protected." Because of her passion for affirming life, she has taken on the responsibility of engaging the pro-life generation in taking action to protect unborn babies and their mothers.

KEVIN BURKE, PASTORAL ASSOCIATE FOR PRIESTS FOR LIFE

KEVIN BURKE

SHOCKWAVES OF ABORTION

Kevin Burke is a licensed social worker, Co-Founder of Rachel's Vineyard Ministries, and a Pastoral Associate of Priests for Life. He is a graduate of The Bryn Mawr Graduate School of Social Work. Kevin's presentations address the effects of abortion on men, couples, and families and effective post abortion ministry for clergy and counselors.

Kevin is the co-author of Redeeming a Father's Heart-Men Share Powerful Stories of Abortion Loss and Recovery and Sharing the Heart of Christ: Safe and Effective Post Abortion Ministry for Clergy and Counselors. He has also contributed and authored articles on the trauma and recovery after abortion. He is a regular guest on national radio shows.

Kevin formerly served as the administrator of Mother's Home, a crisis pregnancy residence that provides housing, computer job training and programs for women and their children. Kevin also worked as a clinical social work supervisor for Catholic Social Services in Philadelphia.

REV. SCOTT BAILEY,
PRIEST & CHAPLAIN

REV. SCOTT BAILEY

HOSPICE & HOPE

The Rev. Scott Bailey is a priest in the Diocese of the Mid-Atlantic currently assisting at Christ Church, South Riding, VA. He also serves on the chaplain team for two health systems comprising of four hospitals in northeastern Maryland. He is an endorsed Chaplain, Licensed by the ACNA Jurisdiction of the Armed Forces and Chaplaincy.

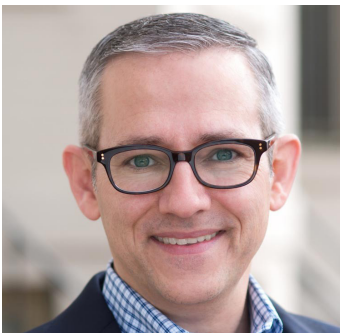

CHERYL SULLENGER,
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT,
OPERATION RESCUE

CHERYL SULLENGER

EVILS OF PLANNED PARENTHOOD

Cheryl Sullenger has been involved in the pro-life movement since 1984. She founded the California Life Coalition in San Diego, a sidewalk counseling ministry that has saved over 2,500 lives. In 1987, an act she now regrets, Sullenger was charged and pled guilty to conspiracy to damage an abortion clinic. Even though the clinic was not damaged, Sullenger took responsibility for her actions and served two years in Federal Prison.

Since then, Sullenger has openly denounced violence to stop abortion and has worked for over two decades as an advocate of peaceful activism as a means to save babies and stop abortion. In 2003, Sullenger relocated to Wichita, Kansas, where she now serves as Senior Vice President of Operation Rescue. Sullenger's research has been used to support pro-life legislation around the country and has been instrumental in closing abortion clinics, launching investigations, and bringing disciplinary action against abortionists nationwide. Sullenger is an accomplished writer and published author. She is the primary author of three books: Their Blood Cries Out, Abortion Free: Your Manual for Building an Abortion Free America One Community at a Time, and The Trial of Kermit Gosnell.

DAVID BEREIT,
FORMER CEO OF
40 DAYS FOR LIFE

DAVID BEREIT

GET BUSY, CHURCH!

David Bereit co-founded 40 Days for Life in 2004 in Texas as a Christian response to the violence of abortion. The group focuses on biannual vigils of prayer and fasting outside local abortion facilities and grassroots community outreach. He first got involved in the pro-life movement after meeting, dating, and then marrying his wife Margaret who was raised in a Catholic, pro-life home. He says that their relationship made him realize the severity of abortion and took him from being passively pro-life to actively pro-life. In 2016, Bereit's pro-life peers selected him as the recipient of the Law of Life Achievement Award, given to those who have suffered in battling the culture of death. He has appeared on many national acclaimed television shows and radio stations to support the pro-life movement.
