There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit distributes them. There are different kinds of service, but to the same Lord. There are different kinds of working, but in all of them and in everyone it is the same God at work. - 1 Corinthians 12:4-6

The unborn baby, the orphaned child, the fatherless teenager, the woman wounded by a past abortion, the lonely elderly man. There are so many people who need protection and support, so much so that those of us in the Church often feel overwhelmed. So many different people, each with unique stories, struggles, and needs — how can we serve all of them?

The answer is that you cannot. And we aren't asking you to. What we do ask is that you serve those who God has put on your heart. If you feel called to help women choose life, join forces with a pregnancy center. If you feel called to serve the elderly, reach out a local hospital or nursing home.

Where God has called, there will be your ministry.

Life ministry shouldn't look the same in every church, for our differences do not weaken us; our differences were created by God to be used for His service. So whomever and however you are called to serve, know that Anglicans for Life wants to help your church do life ministry. Our hope is to see churches worldwide protect the vulnerable and serve the weak, united by the love of God who made us in His image.

So, Church - let us help you serve for Life!
